

Frances Holcombe

Mrs. Frances Louise Holcombe, 80, of Tiger, formerly of Carrollton and Kennesaw, died June 27, 2001 in Northeast Georgia Medical Center in Gainesville.

She was born in Acworth May 19, 1921, the daughter of the late Hiram and Madell Hicks Adams.

Mrs. Holcombe was a retired teacher who began her teaching career in Acworth, spent a number of years in Carroll County and finished her 31-year career in Cobb County. She was a member of the Kennesaw United Methodist Church.

Survivors include: two daughters and sons-in-laws, Dianne and Richard Wiggins of Clayton, and Janie and Chuck Bass of Carrollton; a son and daughter-in-law, Tommy and Dana Holcombe of Birmingham, Ala.; a sister, Mary Dell Adams of Acworth; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Besides her parents she was preceded in death by her sister, Mrs. Betty Adams Hendon, on May 25, 2001.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, June 30 at the First Baptist Church with Rev. Alice Wood of Wiley Presbyterian Church officiating.

Pallbearers were Chris Wiggins, Rob Wiggins, Paul Holcombe, Patrick Holcombe, Mark Bass, and Lee Brumbe-

low. Interment will be in the family plot in Acworth, City Cemetery, Liberty Hill.

Those desiring may make a contribution to: Carroll County Alzheimer's Support Group, Inc., Post Office Box 2465, Carrollton, GA 30117.

Almon Funeral Home, in Carrollton, was in charge of arrangements.