

Jimmy L. Holden

Jimmy Lee Holden, 23, of Pontiac, Mich., formerly of Franklin, died Monday, January 17, in a Pontiac hospital from injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Born in Hendersonville, he was the son of Arthur and Ellen Houston Holden. For three and one-half years he had worked as a mechanic for G.M.C. Truck & Coach in Pontiac. He was a graduate of Franklin High School and a member of Rose Creek Baptist Church.

Funeral services were held Thursday at Cowee Baptist Church with Rev. Fred Cook and Rev. Jud Duvall officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Johnny Rice, Tommy Ramey, Timmy Jarrard, Michael Queen, Bobby and Terry Parrish.

Surviving, besides the parents, are the widow, Davida Stoudenmire Holden; one son, Timmy Shawn; one brother, Roy H. Holden, of Canton, Ohio; four sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Jarrard of Clifton, Ohio; Mrs. Arthur Queen of Franklin, Mrs. Hazel Giles and Mrs. Jacqueline Romine, both of Akron, Ohio; and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Mason Holden, of Franklin.

Neal-Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
