

DEATH CLAIMS

G. G. HOLLAND

Macon Native Dies
In Morganton After
Two-Year Illness

Girlie Grover Holland, farmer of Franklin, Route 5, died September 4 in Morganton. Sixty-nine years old, he had been ill for two years.

Funeral services were conducted on the 6th at 2 p. m. at the Sugarfork Baptist Church by the Rev. William Jolley and the Rev. Frank Holland. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Born December 23, 1886, Mr. Holland was the son of Marion and Mrs. Laura Woods Holland. He was married in 1907 to Miss Temperance Moore, of this county, who survives.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by five sons, Troy, Vernon, Elbert, and Howard, all of Franklin, Route 5, and Woodrow Holland, of Pontiac, Mich.; two daughters, Mrs. Bill Deal, of Route 5, and Mrs. Fred Dills, of Route 1; a sister, Mrs. Ella Ford, of Canton; 34 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Grandsons serving as pallbearers were Berlon and Bobby Deal, Willis Dills, and Shirley, Richard, and Keith Holland.

Arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral Home.

The Franklin Press, 13 September 1956