

Mary Ann Parker Hollifield, 81, of Tiger, died Wednesday, June 29, 2005, at her home.

She was born Nov. 10, 1923, in Rabun County to Jesse Milford Parker and Samantha Moore.

She was a bookkeeper. She served as administrator of Rabun County Hospital for many years and also served as city clerk for Clayton. She was a homemaker and a member of Tiger Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by five brothers and two sisters.

Survivors include: her husband, Leonard B. Hollifield; a son and daughter-in-law, Parker and Joan Hollifield of Tiger; a daughter and son-in-law, Deborah and Alvin Smith of Tiger; a brother, Robert D. Parker of Columbus; three sisters, Margie Burton of Fredricksburg, Va., Maude Burrell of Dacula and Hazel Norton of Tiger; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Tiger Baptist Church with the Revs. Tim Hunnicutt and Leon Miller officiating. Burial followed in Persimmon Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, July 7, 2005