

Gladys Cathcart Hopkins

The oldest member of Iotla Baptist Church

Gladys Cathcart Hopkins, 95, of Franklin, died Monday, Jan. 27, at her home.

A native of Alachua County, Gainesville, Fla., she was the daughter of the late James R. Cathcart and Martha J. Grimes Cathcart. She was also preceded in death by her husband, William James Hopkins.

She was retired from Union Trust Bank in St. Petersburg, Fla., and was the oldest member of Iotla Baptist Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Barbara Hopkins and Linda J. Meadows, both of Franklin; a brother, R.J. Cathcart of Ft. Pierce, Fla.; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held Wednesday, Jan. 29, at Iotla Baptist Church Cemetery. Rev. Steve Reeves officiated.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Iotla Baptist Church Cemetery Fund, in care of Betty Penland, 1537 Iotla Church Road, Franklin, NC 28734.

Macon Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 31 January 2003