

Mrs. Horsley

Marnie B. Horsley, 94, of Franklin, died Monday, March 27, in a Denver, Colo., nursing home after a period of declining health.

A native of Sasser, Ga., she had lived in Macon County since 1915. She retired from the U.S. Forest Service after 25 years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church since 1917, and was church pianist for a number of years. She was the wife of the late Dr. H.T. Horsley, who died in 1973.

Surviving are two sons, James William (Bill) Horsley of Franklin, and Dr. Howard T. Horsley, of Denver, Colo.; and a daughter, Betty Pena, of Red Bank, N.J.; 10 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday in the chapel of Bryant Funeral Home. Dr. Donald G. Bouldin and Rev. Bob Page will officiate. Burial will be in the Woodlawn Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 7-8 p.m. Thursday at Bryant Funeral Home.
