

Mrs. Horvath

Antonia W. Horvath, 86, of Winter Park, Fla., and a summer resident of Franklin, died Saturday, April 7.

A native of Garfield, N.J., she was past president of St. Margaret Mary's Women's Club, a founding parishioner of St. Peter and Paul, she served as president of the women's club and parish council. She was past president of Central Deanery of Catholic Women, board member of Catholic Social Services and the pastoral council, past president of Women's Bowling Congress, Orlando chapter, founding member of Goldenrod Garden Club and Goldenrod Historical Society. She was a member of Goldenrod Chamber of Commerce and civic club, founding member of American-Hungarian Society and served as president for 10 years. She was also a member of St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church.

She is survived by her husband, John F. Horvath; one daughter, Joanne LaPoma of Franklin; one son, John A. Horvath of Winter Park, Fla.; one sister, Paula Woods of Plant City, Fla.; six grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Baldwin Fairchild Funeral Home of Winter Park, Fla., was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 18 April 2001