

Chloe Callie Parrish Houston, 87, of Bryson City Road, Franklin, passed away Thursday, Nov. 30, 2006, at her residence.

She was a native of Macon County, the daughter of the late Carl W. and Julia Arvey Parrish. She was also preceded in death by a son-in-law, Andrew P. Norton; a sister, Bernice Parrish McCoy; and three brothers, Tyndall Parrish, Ardell Parrish and Gilmer Parrish.

She had worked at Nantahala Creamery, at Blue Bell as a machine operator, as secretary for the superintendent of Macon County Schools, and as bookkeeper and secretary for Franklin Mica Mines. She was one of the oldest members of Cowee Baptist Church. She enjoyed sewing, crocheting, knitting and gardening.

She is survived by a daughter, Karen H. Norton of Franklin; two sons, Dennis M. Houston of Smyrna, Ga., and Max C. Houston and wife Penny of Franklin; four grandchildren, Alexandra Houston, Carrington Houston, Drew Norton and Ryan Norton.

A funeral service was held Sunday, Dec. 3, at 3:30 p.m., in the Chapel of Byrant Funeral Home, with Revs. Harold Ball and Lloyd Fish officiating.

Burial was at Woodlawn Cemetery. Pallbearers were Gerald Roper, Charles Roper, Bill Parrish, Bobby Parrish, Jerry Parrish and Johnny Parrish.

The family received friends on Sunday, from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m., prior to the service at Bryant Funeral Home.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
