

James T. Houston

James Thomas Houston, 64, of the Shortoff Community, Highlands, died Friday, October 15, unexpectedly while at work of an apparent heart attack.

He was the son of the late Robert and Mattie Calloway Houston and was a general contractor.

He was a member of the Shortoff Baptist Church where services were held Saturday at 2 p.m. with Rev Frank Reed and Rev. Everette Wilson officiating. Burial was in Highlands Memorial Park with Carl and Claude Zachary, Mike and Clinton Houston, Vic Wood and Wade Potts serving as pallbearers.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Dorothy Spooner Houston; two sons, Bobby of the home, and Richard Houston, of Highlands; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Inman and Mrs. Bud Dalton, both of Highlands; five brothers, George, Carl and Claude Houston, all of Manassas, Va., and Walter and Sam Houston, of Highlands; two sisters, Mrs. Mamie Crane and Miss Maxine Wood, both of Highlands; and eleven grandchildren.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 21 October 1971