

Death Claims J. T. Houston At Buck Creek

James Thomas Houston, 85, well known citizen and life-long resident of Macon County, died at his home in the Buck Creek community, near Highlands, May 12, following an illness of 10 days.

Funeral services were held the following morning at 11 o'clock at the Buck Creek Baptist church. The Rev. J. A. Baly, Baptist minister of Highlands, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Oscar Nix, of Satolah, Ga. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

A farmer, he was a member of the Buck Creek Baptist church.

Surviving are two sons, Robert Houston, of Highlands, and William Houston, of Buck Creek; one daughter, Mrs. Susie Callo-way, of Highlands; two brothers, Pink Houston, and Frank Houston, both of Charleston, Tenn.; two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Flowers, of Ringo, Ga., and Mrs. Sallie Russell, of Hiawasse, Ga.; 17 grandchildren; and 39 great-grandchildren.

Potts funeral directors were in charge of the arrangements.