

Dorothy Gibbs Howard

A homemaker, church member and former resident

Dorothy-Gibbs Howard, 95, former longtime resident of Franklin, died on Nov. 8, in Albuquerque, N.M.

She was predeceased by her husband, Gordon Herbert Howard. Dorothy and Gordon moved to Franklin from Holiday, Fla., and were members of First United Methodist Church.

She was born in Closter, N.J., the daughter of the late George and Mary Biggs. She was the last surviving sibling of six brothers and sisters.

A longtime homemaker, she is survived by a daughter, Lois and her husband, John Siwicki, of Albuquerque, and grandsons John and Gary. Services were held Nov. 9 at the Second Presbyterian Church in Albuquerque. Burial of ashes will be at Kensico Cemetery in Valhalla, N.Y., in the spring of 2003.

The Franklin Press, 17 December 2002.