

Luke Howell Taken By Death

Luke Howell, 81, well known Macon county farmer, died after an illness of a week at the home of Arnold Rogers in the Patton community Sunday morning.

He was a native of Haywood county, having moved to Macon 41 years ago. He resided in the Clark's Chapel section for a number of years. He was a member of the Clark's Chapel Methodist church.

Funeral services will be held at the Clark's Chapel church at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon with the Rev. Philip Green and the Rev. Mr. Sorrells officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Mary Angel Howell, a son, Winifred of Watkinsville, Ga., two brothers, Kanse and York of Whittier, and five sisters, Mrs. James Downs of Franklin, Mrs. Wiley Turpin of Whittier, Mrs. Victor Turpin of Haywood county, Mrs. Elandor Limer of Waynesville and Mrs. Leona Moody of Knoxville. He also leaves six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Pall bearers were Frank Angel, D. C. Rogers, Wanlow Green, Floyd Stiles, Harley Stewart, and Ish Arnold.