

Mrs. Hubinger

Dorothy Hubinger, 79, of Franklin, died Monday, Dec. 31, at her residence after a long illness.

A native of New Jersey, she was the daughter of the late James Williams and Anna Fulton. She grew up in New York and raised her family on Long Island, where she lived and worked until 1978. After retiring to Florida, she moved to Franklin in 1984. She volunteered with Extension Homemakers Association, teaching English as a second language in Macon County schools. She also worked at McDonald's for five years and sold her crafts at Maco Crafts.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Hubinger; a daughter, April Hubinger; and a sister, Evelyn Liljenstrole.

She is survived by a daughter, Christine Hubinger of Franklin; a sister,

Arlene Vescovi of Cowee and many nieces and nephews.

A remembrance gathering was held Tuesday, Jan. 8, at the home.

Daniels Mortuary in Clayton, Ga., was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 11 January 2002