

H. A. Hughes Passes At Andrews

H. A. Hughes died Saturday, August 8, at 5:10 p.m. at Andrews. Mr. Hughes had been an active church member for the past fifteen years.

He was born in 1882 at Young Harris, Ga. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bessie Stepp Hughes; four sons: Don Hughes of Franklin, Joe Hughes of Aquone, Ralph Huges and Robert Hughes of Andrews; one daughter, Mrs. Gladys Barker of Murphy; four sisters: Mrs. Gertrude Blanchard of Greenville, S. C., Mrs. Georgia Howard of Columbia, S. C., Mrs. Lee Dillard of Aquone, and Mrs. Charlie Faber of Franklin, Route 2; one brother, Fred Hughes, of Greenville and 15 grandchildren.

Mr. Hughes has been a resident of Aquone for the past 22 years until he moved to Andrews last week. He has been ill for the past year. Funeral services were held in Andrews last Monday by the Rev. Mr. Baker, and interment was in Andrews cemetery.

The Franklin Press, 13 August 1928