

Mary Elson Humber

A homemaker and restaurant owner

Mary Elson Humber, 77, of Rabbit Creek Road, Franklin, died Friday, Nov. 15, in a local nursing home. She was a native of Botwood, Newfoundland, and was the daughter of the late George and Ethel Mae Newhook Elson. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, George Humber. She was a homemaker and formerly owned and operated Russell's Pan-Tree Restaurant. She lived most of her senior years in Homosassa, Fla.

Surviving are two daughters, Linda Jones of Franklin and Cristy Giddens of Plant City, Fla.; two sons, Ron Russell of Brandon, Fla., and Bruce Russell of Riverview, Fla.; two sisters, Irene L. Locke of Grand Falls, Newfoundland, and Joan Harwood of Quebec, Canada; one brother, Ron Elson of Homosassa; and seven grandchildren.

Services were held Thursday, Nov. 21, at Bryant Funeral Home. The Rev. Benny Bagwell officiated.

The Franklin Press, 22 November 2002.