

Dottie Patton Hunnicutt, 62, of Mountain City, died Monday, Dec. 25, 2006, at Northeast Georgia Medical Center in Gainesville.

She was born Feb. 3, 1944, in Rabun County to Bill and Laura Parker Patton. She worked in a cafeteria for Rabun County Schools for many years. She attended Persimmon Church of God.

She was preceded in death by: a son, Logan Edward Hunnicutt; a daughter, Laura Elaine Hunnicutt; and three brothers, Clifford Patton, Bud Patton and Walter "Little Boy" Patton.

Survivors include: her husband, Ed Hunnicutt of Mountain City; a son and daughter-in-law, Charles and Anita Hunnicutt of Mountain City; two daughters and sons-in-law, Nancy H. and Roy D. Mize of Clayton and Corrie H. and John D. Turpin of Mountain City; two brothers, Billy Patton of Mountain City and Sam Patton of Habersham County; five sisters, Juanita Rawlins of Rabun Gap, Patsy Love and Cora Mae English, both of Clayton, Bertha Plummer of Charlotte, N.C., and Marie Alexander of Habersham County; five grandchildren, Dwayne Hunnicutt, Brandon Hunnicutt, Amy Thomas, Dennis Mize and Jesse Turpin, all of Rabun County; one great-grandchild, Caden Thomas of Rabun County; and several nephews, nieces and cousins.

Funeral services were held Dec. 28 at Persimmon Church of God with the Revs. Gary Ashe and Clay Patton officiating. Burial followed at Taylor's Chapel Baptist Church Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Jan. 4, 2007