

Services For	Funeral services were held at the Assembly of God Church
M.B. Hunter	with the Rev. Fred Sorrells, Rev. W. C. Jolly, and Rev. Jack Cruse conducting the service. Burial followed in the Woodlawn Cemetery.
Malcom B. Hunter, a native of Michigan, who had moved from New Jersey to Macon County, died in a Duncombe County hospital last Thursday following an illness of four months. He had married Dorothy Russell on September 23, 1925. A retired printer, he had worked for the health department of the City of Newark, New Jersey for 33 years.	Pallbearers were Sam Belcher, Oris Wilcox, Lynn Hurlbut, Ernest Holland, Glenn Stiwinter, Jr., and Frank Ramsey. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Frank Kolk, of Wayne, New Jersey. Funeral arrangements were handled by the Neal - Potts Funeral Home.

The Franklin Press, 4 April 1968