

Melissa Hunter

Melissa Key Hunter, age 56, of Turpin Street, Tiger, Ga., died Monday, Jan. 20, 2003, in Rabun County Hospital.

She was born in Rabun County, the daughter of Annie Benfield Key of Lakemont, Ga., and the late James Robert (Bob) Key, Sr.

She was a legal secretary and homemaker, and was a member of the Citizens of Georgia Power Company. Along with her husband, she worked with the Boy Scouts and the Cub Scouts.

She was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Survivors, in addition to her mother, include her husband, Gerald T. Hunter, of the home; three sons, James David Hunter of Clarkesville, Tenn., Thomas Augustus Hunter of Demorest, Ga., and William Matthew Hunter of Tiger, Ga.; one brother, James Robert Key, Jr. of Lakemont; six sisters, Ruth Miller of Hartwell, Ga., Shirley Cole, Symsonia, Ky., Betty Baker, Tiger, Ga., Joanne Hopper and Kathy

Key, both of Lakemont, Ga., and Judy Kell of Clayton, Ga.; two grandchildren, Alex and Tyler Hunter of Clarkesville, Ga.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. on Thursday (today), Jan. 23, 2003, in the chapel at Hunter Funeral Home. President Scott Thompson and layman Lloyd Hunter will officiate. Burial will be in Rabun Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to the Boy Scouts of America, 45 S. Main Street, Clayton, Ga. 30525.

Hunter Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Jan. 23, 2003