

HUSBAND INJURED — Montana Auto Wreck Claims Mrs. Hurst

Mrs. Ellis Hurst, of Outlook, Mont., was killed instantly Saturday in an automobile at Glendine, Mont., it has been learned here.

Her husband was seriously injured in the mishap, according to relatives. Details of the accident had not been learned yesterday.

It is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Hurst were returning home from spending the winter months in Arizona and Texas. A talented painter, Mrs. Hurst had spent most of her time during the winter working on paintings of scenes over the two states. She was the subject of a feature story appearing in an issue of THE PRESS last year in the newspaper's "Looking Homeward" feature. Mrs. Hurst's paintings have been exhibited widely in Montana. She was a sister of the late Bill Tippett and niece of Miss Nina McCoy and Edgar and Lee Tippett.

Mr. Hurst is a brother of Miss Elsie Hurst, of Franklin.
