

Funeral Services For Horace Hurst Sunday

Horace J. Hurst, 58, died at his home in the Bonny Crest section of Franklin Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock following an illness of several months.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist church of Franklin, the Rev. J. F. Marchman and the Rev. Eugene R. Eller officiating. Burial followed in Oak Ridge cemetery.

Pallbearers were Astor Plemmons, Jr., Ray Miller, Foy and Troy Grant, and Dover and Leonard Miller, all nephews.

Mr. Hurst served as deputy sheriff of Macon county a number of years and was elected register of deeds for one term. For the past year he had been employed at the Zickgraf Lumber company. He was a member of the Ridge Crest Baptist church.

Surviving are his widow, the former Miss Ella Miller; one son, Henry Hurst of Franklin; one daughter, Mrs. W. J. Mason of Franklin; five grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Walter Potts of Sylva, Mrs. John Nichols of Ingelwood, Tenn., and Mrs. Walter Anderson of Venable, Tenn.; one half-sister, Mrs. Astor Plemmons of Sylva; and two half-brothers, Sam Hurst of Canton, Ohio, and Frank Hurst of Greenville, S. C.

The honorary pallbearers included Alex Moore, Gus Betser,

E. A. Dowdle, Lee Poindexter, T. W. Walker, John Thomas, Martin Angle, Hunter Calloway and Roy Mashburn.