

Mrs. Mary Hurst

Mrs. Mary Jenkins Hurst, 84 year old Macon County native, died in the Angel Community Hospital last Friday.

Born February 11, 1887, the daughter of W. J. and Buena Vista Allen Jenkins, she married the late John C. Hurst and was a long time member of the Snow Hill United Methodist Church.

Funeral services were held in the church of which she was a member Sunday with Rev. Lee Dunlap, pastor, conducting the service assisted by Rev. C. C. Welch. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were John Hurst, Weaver Hurst, Grover Sheffield, Clyde Clark, Weaver Sheffield, and Harold Sheffield.

Mrs. Hurst is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Burdell Christopher, of South Gate, Michigan, and Miss Annie Hurst, of Portland, Oregon; one son, Ned Hurst, of Morganton; two sisters, Mrs. Burdell Ray, of Franklin, and Mrs. Lillian Hurst, of Route 4, Franklin; one brother, Weaver Hurst, of San Antonio, Texas.

Neal - Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

CORRECTION

Last week's PRESS, in the account of Mrs. Mary J. Hurst's death, should have given her birthdate as February 11, 1886. Also, among her survivors, a daughter, Mrs. Burdell Christophel, and a brother, Weaver A. Jenkins, were given incorrectly. In addition to those listed, she is survived by seven grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

The Franklin Press, 4 February 1971, 11 February 1971