

Mrs. Huscusson, Maconian, Dies In Clay County

Mrs. Callie Lavonda Huscusson, 72, a native of this county, who had lived in Clay County for about 30 years, died September 16.

Funeral services were held the 21st at the Mission Hill Baptist Church in Clay County, of which she was a member, and burial was in the Cartoogechaye Baptist Church cemetery in this county.

Mrs. Huscusson was the widow of Harley Huscusson and a daughed home from Angel Hospital, where she was a patient with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reese and children, Stanley and Barbara Kay, of Canton, visited relatives here Sunday.

ter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Anderson.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Annie Reynolds, Mrs. Ruby Moss, Mrs. Bertha McClure, Mrs. Willa Mae Dalley, and Mrs. Kate Maney, all of Hayesville, Route 1; four sons, Lester and Hoyth, of Canton, Ohio, Halen, of Rockport, Wash., Richard, of Cramer-ton; two brothers, George E. Anderson, of Franklin, Route 1, and Nonly Anderson, of Route 2; two sisters, Mrs. Julia Williams, of Arcadia, Calif., and Mrs. Van Frazier, of Route 1; 31 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Townsend Funeral Home, of Murphy, was in charge of arrangements.

The production of broilers by contract has become widespread throughout North Carolina.