

Icenhower Infant Dies After Brief Illness

Jimmy Floyd Icenhower, six-day old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Icenhower, of Highlands, Route 1, formerly of the Oak Grove community, died at the Angel clinic Thursday morning of last week, at 3 o'clock. He entered the clinic about noon on Wednesday, suffering from pneumonia.

Funeral services were held at the Buck Creek Baptist church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. Frank Reed, officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Surviving are the parents and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Icenhower, of Oak Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hudson, of Highlands, Route 1.

Potts funeral directors were in charge of the arrangements.
