

William T. 'Bill' Jack

William T. "Bill" Jack, 76, of Franklin, passed away Monday, Sept. 4, 2006, in Asheville.

Born in New Market, Va., and of Sanford, Fla., he called Franklin home for the past 10 years.

He was a former marine and a business owner for 33 years.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret Ann Callahan Jack; two daughters, Dianna L. Jack West and Paula S. Simpson Jack; a brother, Albert L. Jack; a sister, Polly P. Jack Smith; and two sons-in-law, Matthew West and James "Bud" Moye; two granddaughters, Alisha N. Simpson and Jacklynn M. Nielsen; three great-grandchildren, Devin, Ashley and Tyler; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Paul Harvey Jack Jr. and R.J. Jack.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, Sept. 9, at Baldwin-Fairchild Funeral Home in Sanford, Fla.

The Franklin Press, 8 September 2006