
Mrs. Jackson

Gracie D. Jackson, 40, of Salem, Ind., died Saturday, Sept. 19, in a Louisville, Ky. hospital.

A native of Manchester, Ky., she was the daughter of Elzie Couch, Hazel Barger Couch and Hazel and William R. Rickman of Franklin. She was a homemaker.

She is survived by her husband, Birchel Jackson II; two sons, Daniel Jackson and B.J. Jackson, both of Salem, Ind.; one stepson and two stepdaughters; one brother, Denver Couch, of Oneida, Ky.; four sisters, Geraldine Bowling of Sizerock, Ky., Kathleen Dills of Lincolnton, Bettie Sue Passmore of Sylva, and Stephanie Rickman of Franklin; grandmother, Ida Green of Franklin, and five grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday, Sept. 22, at Salem Church of the Nazarené, Salem, Ind., with Rev. Rick Main officiating. Burial was in Winslow Cemetery, Salem, Ind.

Dawalt Funeral Homes Inc. Salem, Ind., was in charge of arrangements.