

Bird Jacobs

Native Of Macon, Dies In Bryson City

Bird Jacobs, 67, a native of this county, died at his home in Bryson City about 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, following a heart attack.

A long-time employe of the State Highways Commission, Mr. Jacobs had retired about a year ago. He had made his home in Bryson City for many years.

Survivors include his widow, the former Miss Dora Ramsey; seven children; three step-children; a brother, Gene Jacobs, of near Franklin; two sisters, Mrs. James Stilley, of Gainesville, Ga., and Mrs. Chauncey Cunningham, of Winston-Salem; a half-sister, Mrs. Jay Gibson, of near Franklin; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements in Bryson City were planned for sometime yesterday.
