

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. JAMISON

Well Known Franklin Woman Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Grover Jamison, 51, died at her home on Palmer street Wednesday at 11:45 o'clock, after an illness of five months. Funeral services will be held at the Franklin Baptist church, of which she had been a faithful member for the last 25 years, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. A. S. Solesbee, of Iotla, and the Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Jamison, was formerly Miss Mary Brown. She was a woman highly respected by all who knew her—one the community will sorely miss. She is survived by her husband and six children, Eloise, Edna, Grover, Jr., Frank, John and T. L.; one sister, Mrs. George Owenby, of Franklin; three brothers, Garland and Will Brown, of Lyman, Wash., and George Brown of Franklin; and a step-mother, Mrs. Harriett Brown, of Franklin, besides a number of nieces and nephews.

The Franklin Press, 13 August 1931