

MRS. JAMISON'S FUNERAL HELD

Services Conducted at Baptist Church on
Last Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Grover Jamison, 51, who died at her home on Palmer street last Wednesday, were held at the Franklin Baptist church here last Thursday at 2 o'clock with the Rev. A. S. Solesbee, of Iotla, and the Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church, conducting the services. Interment was in the local cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Henry W. Cobe, W. T. Moore, Gus Leach, Joe Ashear, Roy Carpenter, and Alex Moore.

The deceased was formerly Miss Mary Brown. She had been a member of the Franklin Baptist church for 25 years. She was a splendid neighbor, and a woman well liked by all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, and six children—Eloise, Edna, Grover, Jr., Frank, John and T. L.; one sister, Mrs. George Owenby, of Franklin, three brothers, Garland and Will Brown, of Lyman, Wash., and George Brown, of Franklin; and a step-mother, Mrs. Harriett Brown, of Franklin.

The out-of-town relatives and friends here to attend the funeral were: Mrs. Jane Jamison, of Glenville; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jamison and little daughter, of Glenville; Mrs. K. S. Bryson, of Asheville; Mrs. Mae Wilson and three daughters, of Speedwell; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Owenby and children, of Canton; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Owenby and children, of Canton, and Miss Sadie Queen, of Sylva.
