

Mrs. Jamison Dies

Mother of Grover Jamison Passes In Asheville

Mrs. T. L. Jamison, widow of the late T. L. Jamison, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. K. S. Bryson, in Asheville, Wednesday, March 17 after a short illness.

Besides Mrs. Bryson, she is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Alma Queen, of Pineville, Ky. and Mrs. Mae Wilson, of Speedwell; by three sons, Grover Jamison, of Franklin, Carl Jamison, of Glenville, and Thomas L. Jamison, of New York; and by several grandchildren.

Mrs. Jamison would have been 73 years old in June. She lived most of her life in Glenville, but for the past six or seven years has divided her time among her children, spending a good portion of it in Franklin with her son, Grover Jamison.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church in Glenville by the Rev. W. N. Cook on Thursday, March 18 and burial was in the church cemetery.

The Franklin Press, 25 March 1937