

Harriett Elaine Johnson, 65, died at St. Francis Hospital in Topeka, Kan.

She was born Jan. 23, 1942, in Barnesville to Jacob and Kathryn Darnell Spillers. She was raised in Rabun County, where she attended school. She worked at Hy-Vee Grocery on West 6th Street in Lawrence as a cook until the time of her death.

She married Bobby Wright on Aug. 19, 1961, in Santa Clara, Calif. They later divorced. She married Jim Johnson on Oct. 13, 1994, in St. Louis.

She was preceded in death by an infant brother, David, and two sisters, Linda and Eva.

Survivors include: her husband, Jim Johnson of Topeka; two daughters and a son-in-law, Karen and Loyal Goodman of Cincinnati and Tina Snyder of Columbus, Ohio; two sons and a daughter-in-law, John Wright of Salt Lake City and Pat and Jen Wright of Homestead, Fla.; a sister, Dorothy Henslee of Rabun County; and 13 grandchildren.

A prayer service was held on Tuesday at Davidson Funeral Home in Topeka.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society or Komen Breast Cancer Foundation in care of Davidson Funeral Home.

Announcement courtesy of Hunter Funeral Home.

The Clayton Tribune, April 27, 2006