

Services For Sam Johnson

Samuel Luther Johnson, 73-year-old Georgia native, died Saturday in the Highlands Hospital, following an illness of five weeks.

Born October 26, 1894, he was the son of the late Jasper and Irene McCall Johnson.

He married Miss Katherine M. Talley, of Highlands. While he lived in the Highlands area he was a lumberman and farmer.

Funeral services were conducted at the Clear Creek Baptist Church Monday with Rev. Edgar Owens, pastor, conducting the service. Interment followed in the Highlands Memorial Park.

Pallbearers were Gene Owens, Harold and Charles Ray Prince, Floyd Lamb, Ralph and Robert Johnson.

Mr. Johnson is survived by one son, James, Charlie Johnson, of Highlands; one daughter, Mrs. Sam Prince, of Highlands; two brothers, Riley Johnson, of Hayesville, and Elige Johnson, of Hickory; one half-brother, Mack Webb, of Waynesville.

Funeral arrangements were handled by Bryant Funeral Home.
