

Homer Joines

Homer Joines, 59, former resident of Franklin died December 27 at the Wilkes County General Hospital. He was a resident of Moravian Falls, North Carolina.

Funeral services were held December 29 at the Carson Chapel United Methodist Church with Rev. Clyde White and Rev. Henkle Little conducting the service.

Born February 9, 1914, the son of Reel Joines and Mrs. Lelia Wyke Joines, he was married twice: first to Miss Emma Lou Sprinkle and then to Miss Sallie Bingham, both of whom survive.

Other survivors are: four daughters, Misses Elizabeth Ann Joines, Elsie Joines, and Lisa Joines, all of the home, and Miss Evelyn Joines, of Franklin; three sons, Robert Joines, Danny Joines, and Carlyle Joines, all of the home; one step-daughter, Miss Nancy Passmore, of the home; three step-sons, Steve Passmore, of Statesville, Oliver Passmore, of Moravian Falls, and Tommy Passmore, of the home; four sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Clark, of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Liza Stoyner, of Charlotte, Mrs. Lelia Porter, of Statesville, and Mrs. Zetta Mitchell, of Taylorsville.

The Franklin Press, 10 January 1974