

S. R. Joines

Is Taken By Death In High Point

News has been received here of the death of Shade R. Joines, 60, of High Point, former owner of the Ford automobile agency here, in High Point Monday.

Mr. Joines, who came to Franklin about 1920, purchased the Ford agency from Nimrod Stiles, and built the structure that is now occupied by the Bryant funeral home. He lived here for a number of years, later leaving the business with his brother, John Joines, and opening a Ford agency in Brevard. For the past few years he has resided in High Point.

While in Franklin, Mr. Joines and members of his family took active part in the work of the Franklin Baptist church and of civic organizations.

Surviving, in addition to his widow, the former Miss May E. Taylor, are two sons, Rufus and Paul Joines, of High Point; one daughter, Mrs. James Jennings, of Greenville, S. C.; his mother; and two brothers, John Joines and J. M. Joines; and a sister, Mrs. Carl Jones.

The Franklin Press, 26 September 1946