

Mr. Jones

Fred Charles Jones, 71, of 683 Old Georgia Rd., Franklin, died Monday in Angel Community Hospital.

A native of Macon County, he was a son of the late Charlie and Mary Tippet Jones. He retired from the North Carolina Department of Transportation.

Surviving are his wife, Kathryn Ramey Jones; a daughter, Kathryn Ann Dowdle of Asheville; two sons, Bruce Jones of Belmont and Rev. Kenneth Jones of Sarasota, Fla.; four sisters, Hazel Cherry of Lincolnton, Helen Almon and Elsie Sims of Mount Holly, and Dixie Nell Horne of Mooresboro; a brother, Harold Jones of Belmont; and six grandchildren.

Services were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Longview Baptist Church, of which he was a charter member, trustee and former deacon. Revs. S.J. Waters and Wiley Gibson officiated.

Burial was in Woodlawn Memorial Park.

Memorials may be made to Longview Baptist Church building fund, 7 E. Jones Ridge Rd., Franklin, N.C. 28734.

The Franklin Press, 26 December 1986