

Death of Mrs. Jane Jones

On March 9th God was pleased to call Mrs. Jane Jones from this world of sorrow to a better home on High. Mrs. Jones was brought from her home at East LaPorte and laid to rest at the Walnut Creek cemetery on March 10th beside her husband, Mr. W. A. Jones, who had preceded her 8 years ago, Rev. D. Wooleum conducting the funeral services.

The grave decorations were more beautiful than we had ever witnessed before.

Jane was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Houston and was married to Mr. W. A. Jones in 1908. She leaves to mourn her departure: four brothers and one sister.

All who knew Jane knew of her kindness toward them, as she always met them with a smile. Jane united with the F. B. church in 1902 and since then has lived a devoted Christian life. She left this world with the sweet thought that she was going home to die no more.

Her cousin—A. M. G.

The Franklin Press, 5 April 1928