

William Millard "Dub" Jones Jr., 75, of Clayton, died Tuesday, Nov. 6, 2007.

He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. He attended Emory University and graduated from the University of Georgia in 1957. He and wife Anne lived in his hometown of Gainesville, where he began a successful career with Ralston Purina. He retired from the corporate world in 1988, and they moved to the South Carolina coast. He was involved in Junior Achievement, Boy's Club of America and various arts and music guilds. He had a passion for politics and was involved with the Republican Party and as a member of the Georgia State Committee for Industry, Trade and Tourism. He was a founding member of Mountain Heritage Bank. He was an active member of Clayton First United Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 53 years, Saranne Robertson Jones.

Survivors include: three sons, Steven Millard Jones of Charleston, S.C., Scott Robertson Jones of Greenville, S.C., and William Clay Jones of Tampa, Fla.; two daughters, Rebecca Anne Jones Ferraro of Augusta and Deborah Jane Jones of Marietta; a sister, Willene Grant of Elberton; four grandchildren, Jacob Robert Wagner of Augusta, Eli James Wagner and Eric Donald Wagner, both of Athens, and Megan Allie Jones of Greenville, S.C.; three daughters-in-law, Catherine, Beverly and Kim; a son-in-law, David Ferraro; and a number of nieces and nephews.

A memorial service was held Saturday at Clayton First United Methodist Church with the Revs. Warren Huddleston and Carol Cook officiating.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Association, P.O. Box 409410, Atlanta, GA 30384-9410; or the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 102454, Atlanta, GA 30368-2454.

Beck Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. An online register is available at www.beckfuneralhome.com.

The Clayton Tribune, Nov. 15, 2007