

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. J. B. Justice.

Funeral services for Mrs. John B. Justice, 69, were held on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the Holly Springs Baptist church. The Rev. James I. Vinson, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. C. F. Rogers, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church, and the Rev. I. L. Roberts, pastor of the Franklin Methodist church. Interment was in the church cemetery.

A resident of Macon county all her life, Mrs. Justice died at her home on Franklin Route 4, on Wednesday morning at 1:30 o'clock following an illness of more than three months. On July 8, she suffered a stroke of apoplexy from which she never recovered.

Born on April 22, 1871, Mrs. Justice was the daughter of the late Daniel J. Meadows and Nancy Elmore Meadows. She was married to John B. Justice on November 19, 1893. In early girlhood she joined the Oak Grove Baptist church, later moving her membership to the Holly Springs Baptist.

The pallbearers were Marion Deal, Earl Justice, J. Horner Stockton, Alex Deal, Wayne McCracken and Jesse McCracken.

Surviving besides the husband are seven children, two sons, Butler Justice, of Franklin Route 4, and James D. Justice, of Redding, Calif., and five daughters, Misses Homer and Nellie Justice, Mrs. Walter Taylor, and Mrs. Earl Smart, all of Franklin Route 4, and Mrs. Bryan Setser, of Franklin Route 1; and 11 grandchildren. One sister, Mrs. James M. Morrison, of Etna; three brothers, Emulus Meadows, of Etna, Seth Meadows, of Cle Elum, Wash.; and Crude Meadows of Franklin Route 3.
