

Services For Carlton Justus

Thomas Carlton Justus, 75, a Habun County native, who resided many years in Macon County before moving to Asheville, died recently in a Buncombe County hospital.

Mr. Justus had been retired for several years, having been an employe of the United States Treasury Department in Washington, D.C. for 25 years.

He was a member of the Patton Methodist Church, a 22nd degree Mason and a veteran of World War I.

Funeral services were conducted in the chapel of the Neal-Potts Funeral Home last Saturday with Rev. C.C. Welch and Rev. Fred Sorrellis conducting the service. Burial was in the Patton Methodist Church cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Vernon Justus; three step-sons, Tommy Pruett, of Brevard, Kenneth and Bill Pruett, both of Asheville; one sister, Mrs. Rachel Harris, of Atlanta, Georgia.

Neal-Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the funeral arrangements.
