

George Keener

George Dover Keener, 62-year-old retired mechanic who had resided in the Hickory Knoll community, died in the Toccoa Nursing Center, in Toccoa, Ga., last Wednesday. He was the son of the late Emory and Hudley Holbrooks Keener and a member of the Asbury United Methodist Church.

Funeral services were held at the Dillard United Methodist Church with Rev. Earl Dendy conducting the service. Burial followed in the Rabun Gap Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ralph Cabe, Clinton Vinson, Charles Stiles, Joe Tyler, Willard Garland, and Dean Garland.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Vergie Bradley Keener; two daughters, Mrs. Paul Dean, of Dalenville, Ala., and Mrs. Glen R. Sutton, of Homestead, Fla.; two sons, Glenn Keener of Conyers, Ga., and Gerald Keener, of Greenville, S. C.; two sisters, Mrs. Roy Cabe, of Franklin, Route 6, and Mrs. Ruth Garland, of Highlands; two brothers, Willie Keener, of Franklin, Route 6; and Lee Keener, of Tuscon, Ariz.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.