

Gerald Keener

Gerald Dean Keener, 20, of Lyman, Wash., formerly of Macon County, died Saturday, October 5, in Lyman of injuries sustained in a fire. He was the son of William Shirley and the late Hazel Holland Keener and was employed as a timberman.

In addition to the father he is survived by three brothers, Jim, Johnny and Gene Keener, all of Lyman, Wash.; a half sister, Miss Marilyn Dendy, of Franklin; and a step-sister, Mrs. Bill Fox, of Sylva.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, October 9, at the Goldmine Baptist Church and burial was in Mt. Morriah Cemetery. Officiating ministers were the Revs. W. K. Shields, Earl Dendy, Allen Dendy and Fred Sorrells.

Pallbearers were Mack Cabe, Tommy and Ronnie Keener, Dwight Holcombe, Terry Trent and Ronnie Beal.

Arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral Home.