

J. M. Keener, 93, Passes At Gneiss

James Marion Keener, aged 93 years and three days, died at the home of his son, W. A. Keener, of Gneiss, on Monday, February 22, at 8 a. m. He had been ill for 14 months with Bright's Disease.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday at the Walnut Creek church. Rev. Frank Holland officiated and preached the sermon.

Mr. Keener was the son of the late Ulric and Sophronia Keener, and was born February 19, 1850. He married Rural Vian Holbrooks. Of their eight children, the following survive: Two sons, W. A. Keener of Gneiss and U. P. Keener of Liberty, Tenn.; four daughters, Mrs. S. C. Woods of Gneiss, Mrs. Ella Jones of Ellijay, Mrs. Fanny Moses of Gneiss, and Mrs. Jim Page of Waynesville; one sister, Mrs. Mary Jennings of Otto.

There are about 125 grandchildren and great grandchildren.

The Franklin Press, 25 February 1943