

Therese "Terry" Camp Keener, 78, of Rabun Gap, died Thursday, March 22, 2007, in Britthaven of Franklin in Franklin, N.C.

She was born May 30, 1928, in Buford to Claude C. Camp Sr. and Ozella Compton Camp. She retired as a teacher's aide for Rabun County Schools. She was a member of Betty's Creek Baptist Church, where she taught Sunday school to children for more than 25 years. She was the last member of her immediate family.

She was preceded in death by three brothers, Claude C. Camp Jr., Johnny Camp and Mickey Camp.

Survivors include her husband, Bill Keener of Rabun Gap, and several nephews, nieces and cousins.

Funeral services were held Sunday at Betty's Creek Baptist Church with the Revs. Dale Welsh and Ronia Hunter officiating. Graveside services followed with officiating by the Rev. Everette Wilson.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, March 29, 2007