

William A Keener Last Rites Held At Walnut Creek Church

(Unavoidably omitted last week)

Funeral services for William A. Keener, 74-year-old retired farmer of the Walnut Creek community, were held at the Walnut Creek Baptist church March 21 at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Frank Holland, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. Death on March 18 followed a long illness.

A native of this county, Mr. Keener formerly was employed in construction work by the TVA and the Georgia Power and Light company. He was a member of the Walnut Creek Baptist church.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Fannie Jane Jones Keener; two sons, Wendell Keener, of Gneiss, and Howard, of Baltimore, Md.; three sisters, Mrs. Saphronia Wood, of Cullasaja, Mrs. Ella Jones, of Ellijay, and Mrs. Callie Page, of Waynesville; one brother, W. P. Keener, of Gneiss; and 13 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The Franklin Press, 7 April 1949