

Hugh Kelly

Hugh White Kelly, 79, of Kelly's Creek Road in Rabun Gap, widower of Edith Church Kelly, died Wednesday morning, Dec. 6, 2000 in Lanier Park Hospital in Gainesville.

Born in Rabun County, he was a farmer and heavy equipment operator and was the son of the late Thomas J. and Ada White Kelly. He was a mason a member of Rabun Gap Lodge 265 F&AM and was a member of the Dillard United Methodist Church.

He is survived by one son and daughter-in-law, Tom and Trish Kelly of Rabun Gap; two daughters and sons-in-law, Faye and Larry Cannon of Clayton, Jean and Ted Lindstedt of Mableton; nine grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; several nephews, nieces and cousins also survive.

Funeral services were held Friday, Dec. 8, 2000 at the Dillard United Methodist Church by Rev. Doug Volk and Rev. Larry Cannon. Burial was in the Wesley Cemetery in Rabun Gap with Masonic rites at graveside.

In lieu of flowers, family suggests memorials be made to the Valley Fire Department, Dillard, GA or to the ACAR c/o Dillard United Methodist Church.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge.

The Clayton Tribune, 14 December 2000