

Miranda Kelly, 9, of Rabun Gap, died Sunday, April 24, 2005, at her home.

She was born in DeKalb County to Larry and Katrina Kelly. She lived in Rabun County the past eight months. She was a third-grader who was of the Baptist faith.

Survivors include: her parents, Larry and Katrina Anderson Kelly of Rabun Gap; grandparents, Ned and Sandy Anderson of Jefferson; great-grandparents, May Ford and Jean Goins of Statham and Alma and Jesse Massingill of Knoxville, Tenn.; and uncles and aunts, Grady and Joyce Anderson of Carnesville, Shawn and Tammy Anderson of Jefferson, Joe and Jennifer Goins of Lawrenceville, Jennifer Anderson of Braselton, Mary and Timmy Free of Anderson, S.C., Kim Jarrard of Clayton, Gina Bell of Demorest and Jodie Burnette of Rabun Gap.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Liberty Baptist Church with the Rev. Scott Cates officiating. Cremation will follow.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, April 28, 2005