

Newton S. Key

Former Macon Resident,
Dies In Georgia

Newton Silas Key, 46, of Cornella, Ga., a former resident of the Prentiss section, died suddenly at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Key, in Clayton, Ga., Sunday, June 19.

Funeral services were held at the Mountain Grove Baptist church in Cornella, Ga.

Mr. Key and his father operated a cabinet shop and a grist mill while living at Prentiss.

Surviving are three children, Ernest, Herschel and Mack Key, of Cornella; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Key, of Cornella, Ga.; three brothers, J. Robert Key, Jerry D. Key and Warren H. Key, of Clayton, Ga.; and six sisters, Mrs. Mack Johnson, Mrs. J. B. Walls, Mrs. Dorothy Dickson, Mrs. Nobla Gregory, Mrs. Amanda Henry and Mrs. Effie Hunnicutt.

The Franklin Press, 11 July 1946