

Mr. Kidder

Richard F. Kidder, 63, of Lake Worth, Fla., died Thursday, Feb. 18. Originally from McKean, Pa., he had been a resident of the Lake Worth area since 1954, and spent summers in Franklin. He attended Penn State University, Bucknell, and graduated from Jefferson Medical School. He was a Navy veteran, and had practiced medicine in Lake Worth for 28 years.

He is survived by his wife, Catherine; two sons, Ronald E. Kidder of West Palm Beach, Fla., and Timothy Kidder of Clinton, Md.; two brothers, Paul Kidder of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., and Lynn Kidder of York, Pa.; a sister, Ada Barnes of Perryville, Md.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral mass was held at 10 a.m. Monday, followed by interment in Memory Gardens Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the American Heart Association or to Hospice of Palm Beach County.

Mack Stephenson Funeral Home of Lantana, Fla., was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 24 February 1988