

Jessie Nell Kimsey Taken By Death

Jessie Nell Kimsey, aged 23, died at Duke hospital, Durham, on November 16. For the past year she had been employed by the TVA at their Bryson City office. Prior to this she spent two years as stenographer in the register of deeds' office, Franklin. Her gentle and agreeable personality was appreciated by all who knew her.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kimsey, she had spent her entire life in the Prentiss section of Macon county. She was a member of the Hickory Knoll church.

Funeral services were held at Clark's Chapel, November 18, with Dr. J. L. Stokes and Rev. Carl Judy officiating. Pallbearers were Paul Dean, Jack Cabe, Alton Bryson, Paul Lee Plemmons, Andy Patton and J. L. West. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are the parents, and four sisters: Mrs. Jim Wurst, Franklin; Ruby of Robbinsville; Edith of Newport News; Sudell at home, and one brother, Billy, also living with his parents.
