

Mildred Snyder Kozakoff

The 'rug lady' and quilter

Mildred Snyder Kozakoff, 86, of New Port Richey, Fla., formerly of Franklin, died Nov. 7 in New Port Richey.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Forrest Snyder, in 1981. She is survived by a sister, Maxine Bowman of Montgomery, Texas; two daughters, Janice Bruno of Encinitas, Calif., and Joy Serdenis of New Port Richey, Fla.; two sons, Dr. Ronald Snyder of South Bend, Ind., and James Snyder of Poolville, Texas; a niece, Sandra Taylor of Montgomery, Texas; 12 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren. She was known as the "rug lady" for demonstrating rug braiding at the Macon County Fair for many years. She was a member of Smoky Mountain Quilters and attended First Assembly of God Church in Franklin.

Funeral services and burial will be in South Bend, Ind.

The Franklin Press, 14 November 2003