

Neal Lanning

Neal Howard Lanning, 50, former manager of Grandview Manor Rest Home in Franklin, died October 8 in Oteen Veterans Hospital after a prolonged illness. He was a native of Haywood County, a 32nd degree Mason and a retired Air Force Sgt.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Betty Lou Carter Lawson Lanning; three daughters, Mrs. Brenda Bowlen, Miami, Fla., Mrs. Dotty Leatherwood of Morganton, N.C., and Miss Linda Lanning of Clyde, formerly of Franklin; and one son, Bobby Glen of Clyde.

He was the son of the late Charles F. Lanning of Clyde. Also surviving are his mother, Mrs. Ida Lanning of Clyde; a brother, Earl Floyd Lanning of Waynesville and two grandchildren.

Services were held at Crawford Memorial Chapel Canton, Wednesday at eleven a.m.

The family received friends at Crawford Funeral Home Tuesday night.

The Franklin Press, 12 October 1972